

Description

From the Caucasus mountains along with many other species suitable for green roofs, dwarf sedge grows in dense spreading clumps, is extremely drought tolerant and evergreen.

Profile

- Botanical Name: Carex humilis
- Family: Cyperaceae
- Plant Type: Perennial Sedge
- Plant Usage: Accent
- Hardiness Zone: 4-8
- Foliage Color: Green
- Flower Color: Yellow to Brownish
- Bloom Time: Spring
- Winter Interest: Evergreen
- Height: 6"
- Spread: 16"
- Light Requirement: Full sun to partial shade
- Origin: Caucasus
- Self Sowing: slightly
- Shade Tolerant: Partial
- Substitutes: Bouteloua gracilis, Sesleria caerulea,