

Description

Accent plant used in smaller-scale plantings. Lovely gray-green foliage with pale pink to white flowers in summer, emerging from a small, balloon-like feature. Good mounding habit. Foliage remains green, with some red accents in winter. Large orders may require custom growing. Please call the office for lead times.

Profile

- Botanical Name: Silene uniflora 'Compacta'
- Family: Caryophyllaceae
- Plant Type: Hardy Perennial
- Plant Usage: Accent
- Hardiness Zone: 3
- Foliage Color: Gray-Green
- Flower Color: White to Pale Pink
- Bloom Time: Early to Late Summer
- Winter Interest: Green Foliage with Red Accents
- Height: 4"
- Spread: 10"
- Light Requirement: Full Sun
- Origin: Atlantic Coastal Areas
- Self Sowing: No
- Shade Tolerant: No
- Substitutes: